TICA Membership

What is TICA?

The acronym TICA stands for Thermal Insulation Contractors Association. TICA is a Trade Association representing anyone in the industrial thermal insulation industry. TICA emerged to ensure the industry is highly represented with the express intention of creating and improving standards.

Objectives:

TICA's main aims and objectives are to:

- Create and improve overall industry standards in the thermal insulation industry.
- Offer advice and support to its Membership to ensure the highest quality of service.
- Act positively to promote best working practices.
- Provide training to the thermal insulation industry through IETA (Insulation & Environmental Training Agency), a division of TICA.
- Offer Membership and Training to companies involved in the asbestos industry through its separate division; ACAD (Asbestos Control & Abatement Division).

How is TICA structured?

TICA has a Governing Council (created by 12 Member companies), Chief Executive, Membership & Publications Co-ordinator and an Administrator. To support TICA with the training, IETA has a Manager, two Training Administrators, four tutors and three Training Officers.

The division of ACAD also has a Manager, Membership & Publications Co-ordinator, Training Co-ordinator, three Trainers and a Technical Committee.

Probationary Membership

This grade of membership is for companies who have traded for less than two years.

Membership can be upgraded to Full status once the two years have been completed and annual accounts can be submitted. Until this time, the TICA logo is NOT permitted to be displayed on company letterhead.

Probationary Membership Qualifications:

- Trading for less than 2 years.
- Submission of latest accounts.
- Satisfactory insurance cover.
- A sponsor who is an existing TICA member.
- 1 reference from a Client.
- 1 reference from a Supplier.
- Health and Safety Policy.

Probationary Membership Benefits:

- May have industrial relations representation.
- May receive all information relating to TICA including newsletters on a regular basis.
- Publications (National Agreement etc).
- Business Support Helpline.
- Commercial Support Helpline.
- Qualification for TICA Insurance Scheme.
- Access to a Members Only Section with log-in and interactive Member Location Map on www.tica-acad.co.uk.
- May gain exclusion from Construction Skills Training Levy.

Welfare Benefits:

Under Appendix 2 of the TICI National Agreement, employees have entitlements to agreed weekly sick pay, death and occupational accident benefits. Employers are required either to provide these benefits through the Welfare Benefits Scheme, operated by Welplan Limited, or to provide equivalent benefits through an alternative provider.

Full details of the benefits and qualifying conditions are operated by Welplan. The contact details for Welplan are as follows:

Welplan Limited
Old Mansion House,
Easmount Bridge,
Penrith,
Cumbria
CA10 2BX

Membership Fees:

The annual subscription fee is £915.00 + VAT; invoiced annually on January 1st. Payments can be made via BACS, Standing Order of 6 instalments, cheque or credit card.

The TICA Training Levy is £140.00 per operative.

Application Process:

Complete and return this application form and upon receipt of this, an acknowledgement letter will be sent to you and your references taken. Subject to satisfactory references, the application will be circulated first to the TICA Chief Executive and finally to the Governing Council for approval.

We hereby apply for Probationary Membership of TICA and confirm that the information given is correct and will ensure that the annual labour survey will be completed and returned on time. We also understand that failure to complete a return will result in assessment being made which can only be reversed by direct appeal to the Governing Council.

If accepted to membership we undertake to conduct business affairs in an ethical manner and act at all times in a manner which will enhance the reputation of the Thermal Insulation Contracting Industry. We will operate to the Working Rules and Conditions Industry (NATICI) and, where appropriate, the National Agreement for the Engineering and Construction Industry (NAECI). We agree to abide by the constitution of the TICA and any subsequent amendments to it agreed by the Members in general meeting.

After completion of the two year Probationary period we agree to complete and return a TICA Full Membership Application.

We agree to use the Asbestos Removal Training Modular Training Programme for our entire workforce involved or likely to be involved in the removal of asbestos.
